

Name: _____

Date: _____

Action Verbs: Animals Big and Small

Action verbs name something that a noun can do. (Remember that a noun is a person, place, thing, or animal.)

Directions: Cut out the action verbs at the bottom of the page.
Read each sentence and glue on the correct action verb to complete the sentence.

1. Baby elephants can _____ using their trunks to breathe.
2. Bull elephants can _____ a tree with their strong trunks.
3. Elephants _____ mud on their skin to protect it from sunburn.
4. Elephants can _____ up to 30 miles each day in the wild.
5. Elephants _____ to each other using different types of sounds.
6. Rats _____ when they are tickled.
7. When rats feel safe, they may _____ in a friendly person's lap.
8. Rats _____ with each other.
9. Mice and rats _____ themselves several times each day.
10. Mice love their families and can _____ together all curled up.

swim	lift	talk	walk	groom
rub	giggle	sit	play	sleep

Name: _____ Date: _____

ANSWER SHEET

Action Verbs: Animals Big and Small

1. Baby elephants can swim using their trunks to breathe.
2. Bull elephants can lift a tree with their strong trunks.
3. Elephants rub mud on their skin to protect it from sunburn.
4. Elephants can walk up to 30 miles each day in the wild.
5. Elephants talk to each other using different types of sounds.
6. Rats giggle when they are tickled.
7. When rats feel safe, they may sit in a friendly person's lap.
8. Rats play with each other.
9. Mice and rats groom themselves several times each day.
10. Mice love their families and can sleep together all curled up.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Action Verbs: Animals Big and Small

Action verbs name something that a noun can do. (Remember that a noun is a person, place, thing, or animal.)

Directions: Cut out the action verbs at the bottom of the page.

Read each sentence and glue on the correct action verb to complete the sentence.

1. Baby elephants can using their trunks to breathe.

2. Bull elephants can

a tree with their strong trunks.

3. Elephants

mud on their skin to protect it from sunburn.

4. Elephants can up to 30 miles each day in the wild.

5. Elephants

to each other using different types of sounds.

6. Rats

when they are tickled.

7. When rats feel safe, they may

in a friendly person's lap.

8. Rats

with each other.

9. Mice and rats

themselves several times each day.

10. Mice love their families and can together all curled up.

swim

lift

talk

walk

groom

rub

giggle

sit play

sleep

Name: _____ Date: _____

ANSWER SHEET

Action Verbs: Animals Big and Small

1. Baby elephants can swim using their trunks to breathe.
2. Bull elephants can lift a tree with their strong trunks.
3. Elephants rub mud on their skin to protect it from sunburn.
4. Elephants can walk up to 30 miles each day in the wild.
5. Elephants talk to each other using different types of sounds.
6. Rats giggle when they are tickled.
7. When rats feel safe, they may sit in a friendly person's lap.
8. Rats play with each other.
9. Mice and rats groom themselves several times each day.
10. Mice love their families and can sleep together all curled up.